Library Corner

- We will be highlighting various sections of our library during the year. This month we are focusing on the 'instructional DVD section' of our library, so check out the display table by the library. This section covers some great topics, from bioethics, creation, marriage series, and difficult moral challenges to name a few. These DVDs could be used for individual or group study. Also, there are additional study books available for care groups. These books are in the cupboard across from the coffee station (far right cupboard & top shelf only). If you have any questions, please feel free to ask Tina or Jeanette.
